2 Pianos 4 Hands ...SUCCESS

By Ted Dykstra and Richard Greenblatt
Directed by Thomas Frey

October 15~November 16, 2014

Two actors, two pianos and a dazzling range of characters grace the stage as fifteen years of piano playing unfolds in hilarious glory with music by Bach, Beethoven and Jerry Lee Lewis. "These funny, funny actors, are clever, deft and dazzlingly amusing... triumphant!"~New York Post

A Tuna Christmas THE PHANTOM

by Jaston Williams, Joe Sears, Ed Howard
Directed by Brian McDonald

December 3~21, 2014

This sidesplittingly funny holiday comedy takes you to Tuna, Texas where yuletide activities—and the "Christmas Phantom"—are in full swing. This two-man show introduces a myriad of colorful characters through dizzying costume and scene changes.

The Last Five Years ...LOVE

Music and Lyrics by Jason Robert Brown
Directed by Stephanie Coltrin

January 21~February 15, 2015

Jamie Wellerstein, an attractive and slightly neurotic novelist; and Cathy Hiatt, an aspiring actress who is his "shiksa goddess," meet, are drawn together and then pulled apart by circumstances and choices. This compelling contemporary musical, which boasts a thrilling pop rock score by Jason Robert Brown (Songs for a New World), propels us backward and forward in time through the joys and sorrows of young love.

The Search for Signs of Intelligent Life in the Universe SIGNS

By Jane Wagner
Directed by Jenny Sullivan

March 4~March 29, 2015

Stephanie Zimbalist makes her triumphant return to the Rubicon stage in this insightful/inciteful tour-de-force in which Trudy, a bag lady, takes us (and some intergalactic visitors) on a magical journey of discovery during which we ponder the meaning of "soup, art, fried clams, and the colors of Howard Johnson's.

Copenhagen ...PEACE

By Michael Frayn

April 15~May 10, 2015

Starring Emmy Award-winners Joe Spano and Bruce Weitz, Copenhagen transports us back in time to the mysterious 1941 meeting of German nuclear scientist Werner Heisenberg and Jewish physicist Niels Bohr at the height of World War II. This fateful event is revisited again and again, shrouded in a surreal, fluid dance, while we consider why we do the things we do.

Other Desert Cities AMUSEMENT

By Jon Robin Baitz

May 27~June 21, 2015

Family secrets surface when a novelist returns home to Palm Springs after a six-year absence and unveils a tell-all memoir. Punctuated with crackling wit and sharp political observation, Other Desert Cities garnered five Tony nominations and was awarded Outstanding Play by the Outer Critic's Circle.

Ben ...MEANING

By Steve Bouser
Directed by Peter Hunt

September 2~27, 2015

Should Benjamin Franklin remain in Great Britain where he has been on an extended diplomatic mission, or return to Philadelphia to help unify the rebels who will fight for a new, independent nation? This extraordinary one-person play captures the colorful Franklin on the eve of a historic decision. Ben stars Robin Gammell (Trying, A Delicate Balance.)

My Fair Lady ...GRACE
(2 Piano Version)

Book and Lyrics by Alan Jay Lerner
Music by Frederick Loewe
Directed by James O'Neil

October 21~November 22, 2015

This intimate, chamber version of the legendary Lerner and Loewe story follows Professor Henry Higgins, an arrogant and attractive phonetician who makes a bet that he can transform a "deliciously low" flower girl (Eliza Doolittle) into a lady by teaching her to speak elegantly. The magnificent score includes your favorite classics such as "I Could Have Danced All Night," "On the Street Where You Live" and "I've Grown Accustomed to Her Face."
